

Want to know where to go to connect with our church, our members, and our community? Let's break down all the exciting options we have for you!

Accessible from our website - OakCliffUU.org

Our website contains tons of useful material, including information about our church and UUism, previous sermons on audio, the calendar, events, information on our groups & activities, and member resources.

- CommUUnique: Accessible under "News & Events" or oakcliffuuorg/news, our blog has the components of our former newsletter including up-to-date UUCOC news, events, and announcements.
- Deeper UUnderstanding: Accessible under "Connections & Location" or oakcliffuu.org/deeper, this is a place for discussion about UU principles and our interactions with the world around us.
- eBlast: If you would like to know more about upcoming services, events, and announcements, but don't want to look further than your inbox, just select "eNews Sign Up" under the "News & Events" tab of the dropdown menu, enter your email address, and you'll automatically receive news updates every week!
- Member Resources: Available once the webmaster has verified your membership, this section has projects that need volunteers, our film library listings (members are welcome to borrow titles any time), member directory, meeting minutes, and even a recipes section, inspired by the amazing dishes we've enjoyed at potlucks and other food-sharing functions. Register under "Member Login" on the Membership menu to access these features.
- Breeze: Our new database helps our church become stronger and more efficient! Sign up for Breeze and complete your profile to verify your contact information, select emergency alert options, get information on ride sharing, and help leadership connect you to areas of the church that you may be interested in but are missing out on! Access Breeze under the Membership tab or go to breezechms.com. Note: Breeze can be accessed through the website but requires a separate login. Learn more about Breeze at OakCliffUU.org/tips.

Social Media

A great way to interact with other members, one of our Facebook groups will suit your needs and desired level of social media interaction! Each group can be accessed from our main Facebook page. Select "Groups" on the left side of the screen, and join the ones that appeal to you!

- UUCOC Main Facebook Page: Type in “Unitarian Universalist Church of Oak Cliff” on Facebook and hit “Follow” to keep up with our public content including events, photos, news, announcements, and uplifting stories. Please “Like” us while you are on our page!

- Public Facebook Groups: Anyone on Facebook can see all content posted in these groups, as well as the membership list.
 - Facebook Community: Dedicated to encouraging discussion on topics of interest or concern, including current affairs, UU principles, and topics from Sunday services.

- Private Facebook Groups: Anyone on Facebook can see the group name and description, but only members of the group can see the membership list, posts, and comments. Click the “Join Group” button to request membership.
 - UUCOC Talkback: The most active of our Facebook groups, congregants come to interact with each other and to discuss a wide variety of topics including church services, cares, concerns, personal or other news or funny stories, photos, or anything else they find interesting!
 - UUCOC Adult Religious Exploration: This is a forum for our young adults ages 18-35.
 - UUCOC Book Club: This group is for congregants who want to meet online to share and discuss books.
 - UUCOC Parent/RE: Parents as well as the teachers and volunteers involved in the children’s religious education program interact here. Members of this group are encouraged to discuss parenting issues or concerns, share stories and pictures, and get news on RE events and programs
 - UUCOC Holidays: We've created a group to help organize the various holiday events we celebrate including Christmas, Halloween, and others and use this space to share planning, recipes and activity ideas.
